

Josh Divis

Cybersecurity Analyst | Blue Team Enthusiast

Mesa, AZ

Email: joshdivis2002@hotmail.com

GitHub: <https://github.com/josh-divis>

SUMMARY

Entry-level cybersecurity professional with hands-on experience in vulnerability scanning, network monitoring, incident response, and documentation. Completed a full Nessus remediation lab, and currently working through the Blue Team TryHackMe path. Background in retail operations with a strong eye for detail, organization,

SKILLS

- Tools: Nessus, Splunk, Wireshark, Nmap, Snort, Burp Suite, Metasploit, John the Ripper, Hashcat
- Platforms: Windows, Kali Linux, macOS
- Concepts: Vulnerability Management, Network Security Monitoring, SIEM, Blue Team Ops, MITRE ATT&K
- Scripting: Bash, Python (basic)

PROJECTS

Nessus Remediation Lab - GitHub

- Scanned local macOS system with Nessus Essentials and found 26 vulnerabilities
- Patched Node.js and Adobe applications, verified fixes with a re-scan
- Created a full write-up, remediation summary, and GitHub documentation

TryHackMe Blue Team Path (In Progress)

- Completed modules on Splunk, Cyber Defense Frameworks, Network Security Monitoring
- Documenting write-ups and lab reports

EDUCATION & CERTIFICATION

Cybersecurity Bootcamp - Arizona State University (2024)

- Covered: Networking, security fundamentals, threat intelligence, tools and detection
- Working toward CompTIA Security+ (exam planned next month)

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Cheese Specialist - AJ's Fine Foods, Mesa, AZ

- Led department reorganization that boosted sales by 10.35% over 6 months
- Managed inventory, vendor coordination, and customer-facing cheese demos
- Created schedules, logs, and reports to improve accountability and product rotation